

Name	Edward V Wood
Photo
Overview	Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon, Specialist in disorders of the Foot & Ankle
Sub-specialities	Mr Wood is able to offer all aspects of contemporary Foot & Ankle surgery, including: minimally invasive surgery, arthroscopic techniques, assessment and treatment of associated sports injuries, reconstructive surgery and joint replacement.
Qualifications	Mr Wood qualified from Liverpool University in 1996 and undertook his postgraduate training within the Mersey region. Having attained his FRCS (Tr & Orth) in 2007 he undertook a formal, 1 year, fellowship specializing in Foot & Ankle surgery. He started at the Countess in April 2009.
Other roles	Mr Wood is the Educational Supervisor for the SpRs and is currently enrolled on the Masters Programme in Postgraduate Medical Education. He is also a committee member of the British Orthopaedic Foot & Ankle Society.
Key conditions	Forefoot: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Hallux valgus, Bunionettes, Lesser toe deformities, Hallux rigidus (OA), Rheumatoid foot involvement, Metatarsalgia Midfoot: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Midfoot arthritis, Midfoot collapse, Adult flat foot Hindfoot: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Tibialis posterior tendon dysfunction, Subtalar joint arthritis, Tibial nerve entrapment Ankle: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> •Ankle arthritis – arthroscopic fusion, ankle replacement, Anterior & posterior ankle impingement, Ligament instability and arthroscopic treatment of chondral injuries, Achilles tendon disorders, Diabetic, neuromuscular and post-traumatic foot & ankle disorders
Contact details	Sec: Janice McAvoy: 01244 366 379 Email: secretarytomrwood.footandankle@nhs.net