

Name	Jim Harrison
Photo
Overview	I am a trauma and orthopaedic surgeon with broad training and experience, having spent 11 years in Malawi, Central Africa before joining the team at the Countess of Chester. I am pro-active and hands-on, and enjoy teaching and research.
Sub-specialities	Trauma – I am happy to take on most fractures and non-unions of upper and lower limbs Hip and knee primary arthroplasty and knee arthroscopy. Lower limb realignment osteotomy for early arthritis. Infection Elective hand surgery
Qualifications	BA (Oxford 1987) Bm BCh (Oxford, 1990) MA (Oxford 1995) FRCS Orth (1998)
Positions of responsibility	Educational supervisor for the SHOs I am a reviewer for the Bone and Joint Journal I am the Africa Representative of the AO Socio Economic Committee – this involves oversight of Fellowship programmes, research and more than 20 courses per annum.
Publications	I have published widely under WJ Harrison in areas including HIV and orthopaedic surgery, arthroplasty registries, trauma topics, chronic osteomyelitis, and club foot. I have contributed chapters to a number of books on trauma and infection topics.
Career history	2011 – Appointed consultant orthopaedic surgeon, Countess of Chester 2001 –2011 Medical Director, Beit Cure International Hospital, Blantyre, Malawi; and Associate Professor, College of Medicine, University of Malawi 1995 –2001 Specialist Registrar, Northern Region 1991 – 1995 SHO rotation, Newcastle upon Tyne 1990 – 1991 PRHO, Gloucester and Oxford
Contact details	jim.harrison1@nhs.net 01244 366379 (secretary)